DEEDS, NOT WORDS

Clarksburg People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills,
For Clarksburg kidney sufferers,
Have made their local reputation.
Proof lies in the testimony of Clarksburg people who have been cured to stay cured.

A. J. Smallwood, 776 West Pike street, Clarksburg, West Virginia, says: "For two years I suffered from a dull ache across the small of my back and in the morning I was lame and sore. I had to be very careful in chooping and lifting, as at such times sharp pains darted through my kidneys. Thinking that Doan's Kidney Pills might prove of benefit to me, I procured a box at Wells & Haymaker's drug store and they did me a great deal of good." (Statement given Nov. 25, 1907.)

A Permanent Cure.
The above statement was confirmed on July 8, 1907, by Mr. Smallwood in the following words: "Since taking Doan's Kidney Pills in 1902, I have not suffered from kidney trouble. I consider them a fine remedy and am always glad to recommend them to other people suffering from kidney complaint."

ber, in the year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ten, at the general election held on that day there will be submitted for ratification or rejection two separate amendments to the Constitution of said State as follows, to-wit:

First Proposed Amendment.
Section four of article four to be amended so as to read as follows:
"Sec. 4. No person except a citizen entitled to vote shall, except as hereinafter provided, be elected or ap-thirty, and the attorney general and senators the age of twenty-five years at the beginning of their respective terms of service and must have been provided, however, that a female citi-not less than five years next preceding her appointment, may be appointed a member of the board of regents or cational, humane or penal institutions of the state, wherein female persons are educated, cared for or confined, and may be commissioned notary public, and may be appointed inspectors of labor, deputy clerk of the supreme court of appeals and of the Second Proposed Amendment.

Amending the constitution in relation to the supreme court so as to read as follows:

"1. The supreme court of appeals shall consist of seven judges, the judges of said court in office when this amendment shall take effect, shall continue in office until their terms shall expire, and the legislature shall provide for the election of two additional judges thereof at the first general election held after the adoption thereof, whose terms of office shall begin on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and the governor shall, as for a vacancy, appoint two judges of said court to hold office until the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen. Two additional judges elected in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve shall hold their respective offices for the period of eight years, and thereafter their successors shall be elected for terms of twelve years.

"2. The judges thereof shall annually elect from their number a chief justice. The court may sit en banc or in not more than two divisions, to be designated as part one and part two, and if in divisions, the chief justice shall assign three of the judges in each part. The judges shall be competent to sit in either division and the chief justice shall annually assign three of them to each part, and at the expiration of each year, so re-assign them that not more than two of those who sat in one part, shall sit in, or participate in the work of that division in the succeeding year; provided, however, in the absence of one or more of the judges of either part, the chief justice may temporarily transfer to it, a member of the other part.
Each part shall have power under such rules, regulations and limitations as the whole court may prescribe, to hear cases and render decisions, as effectual and binding in all respects as if rendered by the entire court; provided, that no decision shall be rendered without concurrence therein of three judges. The chief justice shall apportion the business of the court between the parts, and may, in his discretion, order any cause pending before the court to be heard and decided by the court en banc, and, in any case heard en banc, the concu-rence of four judges shall be necessary to a decision. The chief justice may sit and act in either part, and shall preside when so sitting but the judges assigned to each part shall select one of their number as presiding judge."
